COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

STATE CORPORATION COMMISSION

AT RICHMOND, SEPTEMBER 25, 2001

APPLICATION OF

ENKIDO VIRGINIA, INC.

CASE NO. PUC010095

For certificates of public convenience and necessity to provide local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO WITHDRAW APPLICATION

On September 19, 2001, Enkido Virginia, Inc. ("Enkido" or the "Company") filed with the State Corporation Commission ("Commission") a motion to withdraw without prejudice its application for certificates of public convenience and necessity to provide local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia ("Application").¹ The motion further requests that the Commission cancel the hearing for the purpose of receiving evidence relevant to the Application scheduled for October 18, 2001.

In support of its motion, Enkido states that the Company is going through a transitional period and revising its business model. As such, it is unable to move forward with the Application at this time. Enkido indicates that it intends to resubmit its Application once this transitional period has been completed.

NOW, having considered the Company's motion, the Commission is of the opinion and finds that the motion should be granted.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

(1) Enkido's motion to withdraw without prejudice its Application is hereby granted.

(2) The hearing on the Application scheduled for October 18, 2001, is hereby cancelled.

(3) There being nothing further to come before the Commission, this case shall be dismissed and the papers filed herein placed in the file for ended causes.
